

LIVESTOCK RULES AND REGULATIONS

Superintendent of Livestock - Tim Coon

1. Before making entries, read Part 350, Standards for Conduct of Fairs at www.dutchessfair.com. DCAS policy on all competitive exhibits applies to all livestock entries.
 2. All cattle, sheep, and goats will be inspected by the State Veterinarian upon arrival at the fairgrounds. Animals must be accompanied by a valid CVI (certificate of veterinary inspection). BVD testing results must be included on health certificates or proof of testing must be shown by exhibitor.
Only after inspection will animals be allowed to enter the barns. The state inspection team will be available on Sunday, August 21st and Monday, August 22nd 8am - 7pm unless special arrangements are made with the livestock superintendent. Hogs, rabbits, cavy, and poultry will be inspected in the respective barns at the discretion of the state veterinarian.
 3. Violation of Rules - All entries for exhibits of any kind or character in this animal exhibit are subject to these regulations and any violation will subject exhibitors to any penalties the Livestock Committee may order.
The Dutchess County Fair reserves to the Management and the Livestock Committee the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, or incident to, the show.
 4. Entries are open to all competition. Check each department for entry fees. The show management reserves the right to accept or reject entirely, partially or conditionally any entry or application. The management also reserves the right to personally, or appoint a committee, to inspect all entries after they have arrived, and dismiss any entries that would discredit the show.
 5. Fair will provide bedding and shavings as follows: 1 Bale per day, per cow. 1 Bale per day for every 2 heifers.
(Example: 1 cow, 2 heifers = 2 bales each day). Anything over that can be purchased at market price). Sheep will receive 2 bales of shavings and 1 bale of straw per pen. Goats will receive shavings only.
 6. Assignment of Pens/Stalls - The assignment of all the spaces will be made by the superintendent of the breed, or any other person appointed by the Chairman of Livestock or his committee. NO EXHIBITOR shall change, trade or take extra pens/space without permission of appointed representative. This will be strictly enforced.
 7. ALL ENTRIES MUST BE MADE BY DATE LISTED IN EACH DEPARTMENT. No additions will be made after the close of entries. Changes or substitutions can be made but may not appear in show program. In the unlikely event pens/barns reach capacity the Superintendent of Livestock and fair management will decide how to proceed.

NEW for 2022

 Livestock Hill - Barn of Excellence Award ***

The Barn of Excellence will include all barns/species on Livestock Hill during the 176th Dutchess County Fair.

Barns will be judged on the following criteria:

- Engagement and welcoming attitude to the fair public.....30 points
- General Appearance of stalls, animals, and equipment.....30 points
- Educational value of display.....20 points
- Promotion of product..... 20 points

All Barns will be judged each day, between 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. The main factor in display scoring will be the engagement and welcoming attitude towards the fair public and overall appearance of the barn area. Each day a banner will be presented to the barn having the highest average score. Let's show the fair patrons what Livestock Hill is all about!
